

Bunny Ear Ring Toss Relay

“Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.” Romans 12:2 (ESV)

Object: The object of this game is for the students to realize how easy it is to become distracted with Easter activities and lose sight over why we celebrate Easter.

Supplies:

- One Headband with bunny ears per team
- 3 Soft Rings or plastic glow-in-the-dark necklaces (to make a ring) per team
- Peeps for the winning team
- Masking Tape
- 1 necklace of a cross per team (This can be a necklace with a cross or a picture of a cross taped onto a necklace)

Preparation:

Tape down a starting point for each team and a focus point on the other side of the room where you want them to hop to for the relay

Rings should be put together before the game starts

How to Play:

Explain to students that they will be divided into two teams and that they will have to stand behind the starting point. The first person in the line must wear the bunny ears and the cross necklace and hop down to the focus point. Then they need to turn around and stop. The next person in line must throw the rings to try to get the rings over one or both ears. The player must continue to try until all three rings are on the bunny ears. Then after all the rings are on the bunny ears, the person wearing the bunny ears needs to hop back to the starting line. The next person in the line will then put on the bunny ears and cross necklace and hop down to the focus point and the process will continue. Instruct students to continue until everyone has had a chance to do both the throwing of the rings and wearing the bunny ears. After each team has completed the game they need to sit down. The first group that sits down wins!

Leader Script:

The Bible says, “Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.”[Romans 12:2 (ESV)]

So often, we get distracted by the things of this world that we forget the reason why we celebrate Easter. We celebrate Easter to celebrate the resurrection of Christ. He defeated sin and death forever. It’s sad to say, but with the Easter bunny and candy, Christ gets the backburner because this world focuses on things that are temporary. But God has called us to focus on what’s eternal. Jesus dying on the cross for our sins and resurrecting means that sin and death no longer have a grip on all those that love Him. We are free forever because of His amazing sacrifice and His amazing love for us.
